

Webinar: Customised Employment - streamlining sustainable transitions

Date: Tuesday, 27 February 2018

Time: 12.30pm–1.30pm

Through the NDIS people with disability are increasingly seeking transition to work supports. Join us in this webinar to gain knowledge and an overview of tools and resources to support people who want to work and achieve suitable and sustainable employment using a Customised Employment approach.

This webinar will:

- Provide an overview of the Customised Employment approach
- Encouraging families to be part of the transition journey
- Explore how to maintain successful workplace partnerships
- Broaden thinking around employment supports
- Question and Answer session

Webinar details: Auslan interpreted, live captioned and recorded
60 minutes duration, FREE to participate

Gaelen Williams – National Disability Services

Gaelen has spent the last 10 years in the NFP, Training and Disability Employment sectors holding roles as Trainer & Assessor, Careers & Employment Advisor and Regional Manager. With the Transition to Employment team NDS WA, he has developed and delivered training and mentoring sessions around the Customisation of Employment for people with disabilities. His passion and motivation is working and assisting individuals with barriers, particularly individuals with disabilities, youth at risk and disengaged youth to achieve their full potential with the goals of breaking the cycle of unemployment, helping secure suitable and sustainable employment and to assist them to learn, work and grow.