

SACID Reference Group

SACID is setting up a reference group

The SACID Reference Group:

- is for people with intellectual disability
- will give people with intellectual disability more say at SACID
- will help SACID to know what is important to people with intellectual disability

You will be paid for being in the reference group if you are chosen to be part of it

You do not have to live in Adelaide to join the reference group

SACID will decide who is in the reference group

In the SACID Reference Group

You will meet once a month

You will learn about:

- being on a committee
- running meetings
- speaking up
